CPYRGHT

FOIAb3b

Theodore Roosevelt Medals To Bunche, Frost, Wallaces

guished Service for the year the Trusteeships Division of the 1954" were awarded last night United Nations, from receiving on the ninety-sixth anniversary of Mr. Roosevelt's birth to Dr. Ralph Bunche in the field of international agairs, poet Robert Frost in American literature, and Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Wallace, editors and publishers of to the loyalty of Dr. Bunche as to the loyalty of Dr. Bunche as the control of the loyalty of Dr. Bunche as the loyalty of Dr. Bun lace, editors and publishers of "The Reader's Digest," for distinguished service by private States."

I choose righteousness." Archibald B. Roosevelt.

The Theodore Roosevelt Asso- living son of the former President, railed in an attempt to

In another birthday ceremony, The medals were presented by a wreath was placed at the Oscar S. Straus 2d, president of Roosevelt gquestrian statue in Oscar S. Straus 2d, president of Roosevelt Equestrian statue in the association, at Theodorc front of the American Museum Roosevelt House, 28 E. 20th St. of Natural History, at 79th St. The medal, designed by the late and Central Park West. Joseph James Earle Fraser, American J. Bruno, first president and sculptor, bears on one side the founder of the Theodore Roosehead of Mr. Roosevelt, and on velt Navy Day League, which the other a flaming sword and sponsored the exercise, placed the words, "If I must choose be- the wreath at the statue and tween righteousness and peace, read Gov. Dewey's proclamation designating yesterday as Theodore Roosevelt Day.